

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® TEAM SELECTED BY CoSIDA

For Release:

Tuesday, June 14 – noon ET

FIVE STANDOUT STUDENT-ATHLETES HIGHLIGHT 2022 MEN'S AT-LARGE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® TEAMS

AUSTIN, Texas – Four standouts athletically and academically – University of Louisville swimmer Nick Albiero, McKendree University swimmer Xander Skinner, Pomona-Pitzer Colleges water polo player Kellen Grant, Indiana Institute of Technology wrestler Eric Vermillion and Cloud County Community College wrestler Zach Ferris – highlight the 2022 Academic All-America® men's at-large teams selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Albiero (Division I), Skinner (Division II), Grant (Division III), Vermillion (NAIA) and Ferris (College Division) have each been named the Academic All-America® Team Member of the Year for their respective divisions.

Division I

Albiero, who was also the Academic All-America® Team Member of the Year in 2021, was named ACC Men's Swimmer of the Year for the second consecutive year after winning the 200 butterfly at the ACC Championships for an ACC-record fifth consecutive year. He earned seven All-America honors this season, finishing third in the 200 butterfly, sixth in the 100 butterfly, and sixth in the 100 backstroke. He was also a member of the 200 medley relay, 400 medley relay, 800 freestyle relay, and 400 freestyle which all earned All-America honors. In his career at Louisville, Albiero earned 28 All-American accolades, including 12 individual All-American honors. Albiero, a graduate student who hails from Louisville, Ky., has a 3.77 GPA in business administration.

Twenty members of the Academic All-America® Division I men's at-large teams boast a perfect 4.0 GPA in their undergraduate work or graduate school. The 15 members of the first team have an average GPA of 3.93.

Twelve student-athletes including Albiero are repeat selections on the Academic All-America® Division I men's at-large team – Myles Amine (University of Michigan), Ford Clegg (Mississippi State University), Axel Geller (Stanford University), Mason Kauffman (Northern Illinois University), Eric Knowles (North Carolina State University), Derek Maas (University of Alabama), Nicholas Perera (University of Alabama), Shane Griffith (Stanford University), Ben Bramley (Purdue University), Zach Hartman (Bucknell University) and Nick Lee (Pennsylvania State University).

Division II

A graduate student from Namibia, Africa, Skinner wrapped up his storied collegiate career this past March by earning seven All-American honors in the pool at the 2022 NCAA Division II Men's Swimming & Diving Championships. With those seven All-America honors this year, Skinner capped off his McKendree swim career with 21 All-America accolades. He is a business administration major with a 3.88 GPA.

The Division II Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division II national governance structure to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2021-22 Division II Academic All-America® program.

Twenty members of the Academic All-America® Division II men's at-large teams boast a perfect 4.0 GPA in their undergraduate work or graduate school. The 17 members of the first team have an average GPA of 3.96.

Fourteen student-athletes are repeat selection on the Academic All-America® Division II men's at-large team – Tobi Azeez (University of Mount Olive), Jan Delkeskamp (Queens University of Charlotte), Andy Huffman (Missouri Univ. of Science & Technology), Mitchell Linklater (Lenoir-Rhyne University), Myles Moffat (Lenoir-Rhyne University), Juan Ortiz Couder (Embry-Riddle University), Jonas Soerensen (Wingate University), Jordan Will (Minot State University), Mahmoud Elgayar (Colorado Mesa University), Weston Hunt (Colorado School of Mines), Cole Laya (West Liberty University), Oliver Mast (University of Indianapolis), Sam Sippel (Azusa Pacific University) and Garrett Vos (St. Cloud State University).

Division III

Grant, a junior goalkeeper from Claremont, Calif., was named the 2021 ACWPC Division III Player of the Year and earned All-American honors after posting 260 saves and 34 steals in 30 games and 772:13 minutes in-goal for the Sagehens during the 2021 campaign. He helped lead Pomona-Pitzer to the 2021 NCAA Division III Men's Water Polo National Championship and a 27-8 overall record. He is an economics major with a perfect 4.00 GPA.

The Division III Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division III national governance structure to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2021-22 Division III Academic All-America® program.

Nineteen members of the Academic All-America® Division III men's at-large teams boast a perfect 4.0 GPA in their undergraduate work or graduate school. The 15 members of the first team have an average GPA of 3.94.

Fifteen student-athletes are repeat selections on the Academic All-America® Division III men's at-large team – Jarrett Anderson (Springfield College), Nick Aney (Gustavus Adolphus College), Ryan Gebhardt (MIT), Isaac Gorelik (Tufts University), Vishnu Joshi (Johns Hopkins University), Brett Kaliner (Stevens Institute of Technology), Mason Nissley (Messiah University), Liam Picozzi (Denison University), Jeff Vitek (Johns Hopkins University), Braden Birt (Millikin University), Jack Mulvihill (St. John Fisher College), Dylan Rice (Christopher Newport University), Jayden Kunwar (Johns Hopkins University), Shane Liegel (Loras College) and Zeke Smith (Loras College).

NAIA

Vermillion, who hails from Mason, Ohio, became Indiana Tech's second, two-time national champion after claiming the 184-pound crown at the 2022 NAIA National Championships. He capped his season with an impressive overall record of 24-3 and repeated as the WHAC 184-pound conference champion. Vermillion is a senior industrial and mechanical engineering major with a 3.89 GPA.

The NAIA Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NAIA national governance structure to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2021-22 NAIA Academic All-America® program.

Three members of the Academic All-America® NAIA men's at-large teams boast a perfect 4.0 GPA in their undergraduate work or graduate school. The 10 members of the first team have an average GPA of 3.94.

Including Vermillion, there are six repeat selection on the Academic All-America® NAIA men's at-large team – Luciano Bucci (Park University), Dylan Crouch (University of the Cumberland), Enzo Esteves (University of the Cumberland), Teegan Heiniger (Taylor University) and Martin Barbier (University of the Cumberland).

College Division

A sophomore from Chapman, Kan., Ferris became Cloud County's first two-time All-American after finishing third at 197 pounds at the 2022 NJCAA National Championships in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on March 5th. He capped off his impressive career with the Thunderbirds with an overall record of 40-6 and set the school record for wins in a national tournament (nine) and career win percentage (.869). He is a business major with a flawless 4.00 GPA.

The college division includes two-year institutions, Canadian institutions and any United States four-year institutions that are not affiliated with the NCAA or NAIA.

Four members of the Academic All-America® College Division men's at-large teams boast a perfect 4.0 GPA for 2022. The seven members of the first team have an average GPA of 3.92.

Northeast Mississippi Community College's Jamarcus Smith is the lone repeat selection on the 2022 Academic All-America® College Division men's at-large team.
